Short Course Learning Opportunity

LEARN TO USE DYNAMIC ASSESSMENT AND TO INTERGRATE IT INTO YOUR ASSESSMENT
REPertoire

The 'Dynamic Assessment-Intervention' short course is for educational professionals who are interested in optimizing human learning potential.

We offer a theoretical framework and a set of tools to help understand each learner as an individual, rather than a data point on a bell curve.

This is a new short course which is being offered for the first time in 2017

We provide educators with a engaging learning experience that integrates a variety of novel approaches.

Aims of the programme

The course aims to introduce students to Dynamic Assessment-Intervention (DAI) which can be integrated in psycho-educational and school-based assessment to inform intervention.

Participants are introduced to an interactive and process-based approach to assessment where learners' cognitive modifiability provides a basis for developing detailed and individualized instructional strategies.

The course provides a developmentally appropriate approach to advance cognitive development in all areas of the curriculum.

Outcomes of the course

The course participants will be able to:-

- Demonstrate knowledge of the theory and history of the DAI approach
- Demonstrate understanding of the role of DAI and its relation to cognitive intervention
- Apply the principles of DAI within a standard assessment/school assessment context.
- Integrate findings from DAI into psycho-educational reports and/or within an Individual Support Plan

Duration of the Programme

The course is run over a period of 5 weeks. There are three contact sessions (x8 hrs per session), three independent practical sessions (x4 hrs per session), and one supervisory session (x3 hrs).
